CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favoraole advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in eash, or by effecting a eash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by b member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be letermined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS: James T. Close, Thomas T. Hill. R. H. Carter, Wm. Wright, R. F. Lester. Ben. F. Nalle, George E. French, W. M. Turner, Wm. C. Knight.

COMMUNICATED. JOY AND SADNESS. O! there are times when the heart is light, As the zephyr breeze of May; When life seems all as fair and bright,

When flowers that bloom around our way,

As a cloudless Summer's day: When all the world seems filled with joy, And Hope with brightest beam, Shines on our hearts without alloy Along life's silvery stream.

Seem fairer than of yore; And joys all cast a brighter ray, Than e'er they did before. When memory to us sweetly brings In waves of fond delight,

Remembrances of by-gone things, Back to our welcome sight. Yes, there are times when the heart is light, As the very air we breathe;

And earth seems all too fair and bright For us e'er to wish to leave. But there are times when the heart is sad, As the Autumn wind's low moan:

When the light that made our life so glad, Is shadowed o'er with gloom. When all the world seems drear and dark, And Hope but faintly gleams, Upon our frail and struggling bark That floats life's troubled stream.

Are withered by the blight,

Of all things here below,

And joys that cast so bright a ray, Mave set in darkest night. When bitter memories o'er us roll, Their billows, dark and wide, And down into the very soul They sweep their surging tide. Yes, there are times when the heart is sick,

And we sigh as the shadows gather thick,

When flowers that bloomed around our way,

For the peace of the grave so low. Rappahannock Co., Va.
